10.07 Resolutions

All matters presented to the Delegate Assembly for action shall be submitted in the form of resolutions. A resolution consists of whereas and resolved clauses. Whereas clauses state the need for action and resolved clauses state the action requested.

(a) Drafting of Resolutions

A resolution begins with an idea addressing an issue that a person feels needs to be improved, amended, replaced or rescinded. A resolution can be submitted by: 1. the Board of Directors; 2. any delegate; 3. any delegate-elect; 4. a standing committee; 5. any chapter.

A resolution is written in two parts. The first part states the reason for the resolution, pointing out selected facts concerning the issue. Each reason or fact is a short, separate paragraph which begins with "WHEREAS," is consecutively numbered, and must be a complete statement. Any number of WHEREAS clauses can be presented to support the reasons for the proposal.

The second part of a resolution simply states what action should be taken to achieve the desired result. Again, there can be any number of actions intended in separate statements called "RESOLVED" paragraphs, consecutively lettered. All requested actions must be related to the particular issue.

Requirements for preparation of RESOLVED clauses are:

- (1) must be complete statements (sentences) which stand on their own merits;

- (2) must clearly state the intent of the author;
- (3) must identify the section of the Bylaws which is affected, if any; and
- (4) must clearly reflect the subject matter.

(b) Responsibility of Proponent

The primary responsibility for ensuring that a resolution intended for submission to the Delegate Assembly is in proper form rests with the proponent.

(c) Format of Resolution

Resolutions submitted to the Delegate Assembly must set forth the subject, the name of the proponent, including chapter number if it is submitted by an individual, and a reference to the appropriate section of the Bylaws, if ascertainable by the proponent, in the following form at the beginning of the resolution:

SUBJECT:

SUBMITTED BY:

REFERENCE:

WHEREAS, (1), now therefore be it RESOLVED, (a)

Principal Proponent _____
(individual, chapter, etc.)

Resolutions submitted by 10 or more active members of the Corporation or signed by 5 or more delegates or delegates-elect of the Delegate Assembly shall indicate the principal proponent in the above form.

Amendments to the Bylaws shall be in a form which indicates proposed deletions to existing language in strikeout type and proposed additions to existing language in underline type. If a proposed amendment is to delete an entire section, a statement to that effect is all that is necessary.

The resolution must contain an estimate of probable cost to the Corporation in the following form:

ESTIMATED CORPORATION COST:

(d) Processing of Resolutions

All resolutions received in the Corporate office no later than 60 days prior to the convening of a Delegate Assembly shall be forwarded to the members of the Resolution Screening Committee. Resolutions may be proposed by 10 or more delegates and delivered to the Corporate office before 12 noon of the 30th day preceding the convening of the Delegate Assembly.

Any resolution submitted by email shall be accompanied by a scanned copy of the signatures of the proponents of the resolution.

Upon receipt of the resolutions, the members of the Resolutions Screening Committee shall review them for the immediate purpose of offering guidance to the proponent of a resolution that has inadequacies. The proponent is to be informed as to what changes or corrections need to be made in order to eliminate the inadequacies. Corporate office shall be notified as soon as possible in order for them to notify the proponent so that the resolution can be corrected and put in proper form. Any resolution so changed or corrected must be submitted prior to the final deadline for submission of resolutions.

(e) Personal References

The Corporation will not publish resolutions to be heard at the Delegate Assembly which names any individual person or alludes to any Corporation member in language that may be deleterious to that person's character and/or reputation. Such resolutions shall be referred by the president to the Board of Directors.

(f) Suspended Resolution

The Board of Directors may, for substantial cause, suspend enforcement of a Delegate Assembly resolution by a two-thirds vote. The Board of Directors must immediately initiate a resolution to the Delegate Assembly delegates to rescind or amend the suspended resolution (to be considered either between sessions or in the next succeeding session). Failure of the Delegate Assembly to rescind or amend the suspended resolution lifts the suspension and restores the suspended resolution to its original form, requiring immediate implementation.

(g) Conflicts Between Resolutions

In interpreting the action of the Delegate Assembly where a conflict exists between two or more resolutions:

- (1) The most recently adopted resolution shall govern when the conflicting resolutions were adopted at different Delegate Assemblies;
- (2) The Board of Directors shall resolve the conflicts between resolutions adopted at the same Delegate Assembly by taking into consideration the overall actions of the Delegate Assembly in order to determine its intent with respect to any individual resolution; and
- (3) If the Board of Directors cannot determine the intent of the Delegate Assembly, it may submit conflicting resolutions to the delegates to resolve the conflict.
